Foreword to “The Listener” and “The Listener -Rewind”

Vision—A goal that is written down and is “clearly seen” in the mind’s eye of the visionary.

Motivation—The inner drive which “propels” the visionary toward the accomplishment of his or her vision regardless of any obstacles, roadblocks, and setbacks.

Achievement—The culmination of prayer, hard work, and “single-minded” determination that results in a realized vision.

I am pleased and honored to write the foreword for “The Listener” and “The Listener-Rewind.” “The Listener” was written for pre-teen and teenage boys and girls. But “anyone” will enjoy reading this book. The chapters are short, and the pictures and illustrations tie the main points of each chapter together. Michael’s writing style is fluid, and I felt I was re-learning all over again. I especially enjoyed Michael’s follow up book, “The Listener” – Rewind that targets young men. As I have two boys, I will be sharing this book, which provides Biblically-based wisdom for courting, winning, and loving a Christian woman. I also appreciated the following points, Michael makes.

1. The process of winning the Christian woman of your dreams requires preparation and discipline.
2. Just because you love someone doesn’t mean you can, should, or must marry that person. Love is only one of the many factors to consider in making the second most significant decision of your life—who you will marry and spend the rest of your life with.
3. Most of all, I would say to be sure and include The Holy Spirit, Prayer, His Word, your parents, Pastor, and mentor throughout the entire dating and courting process. YOU NEED THEM.

I would like to point out that Michael cast a vision more significant than just authoring these two books. Michael wanted to include recordings from three “influencers” who have uniquely shaped Michael’s life. They are Paul J. Meyer, founder of Success Motivation International), Gary O’Malley (former vice president of SMI’s sister company, Leadership Management International), and world-renowned motivator and trainer, Zig Ziglar. Michael was motivated to get these three influencers to say “yes” and allow him to share several of their recordings. It is also clear that Michael authored these books from his heart and real-world experience. Throughout these two books, I felt what Michael is feeling. Michael knows the material because he has lived it. I have listened to Paul J. Meyer and Zig Ziglar and read several of their books. I can “see” their influence on the pages of these two books. Great job, my friend. You have achieved something that will help and inspire many people.

Two More Books

Ten years ago, I authored “The Listener” and “The Listener” – Rewind. However, I never made them available. But after beginning our new covenant ministry to the “Jewish People,” it made sense to share these two manuscripts.

Our “Jewish People” ministry is called “Yisrael’- ‘Leh-hah-ah-ZEEN,” which means “Israel Hear.” Then it dawned on me that our “Jewish People” ministry and these two manuscripts share the main point – “Listening.” These two books also open another door of opportunity for me-ministering to young men and women, and their parents. God is GOOD! Enjoy!
